DIN Alternate Regular Texte courant

Mauritius island, situated in the golden triangle connecting Asia, Africa and Australia, has the most amazing white coral sand beaches and crystal-clear lagoons, which contrast vividly with the backdrop of black volcanic mountains. Its international airport serves more than 40 destinations worldwide. TRISTAN XI is hosted by Université Gustave Eiffel, France. This fantastic symposium will be held at Hotel Le Méridien Ile Maurice. It is located on the western coast of the island in the picturesque village of Flic-en-Flac.
